

Topic & Philosophy of Festival

The “nahia film fest”, International Short Film Festival about sex, gender and eroticism”, defends an open, diverse and plural perspective on sexuality, love, sex and relationships.

The philosophy of the festival is based on two main themes: equality and recognition of diversity.

From these pillars we intend to disclose an imaginary beyond hetero-normative, monogamous, sexist and patriarchal discourse that prevails in the "mainstream media", a space that constrains sexuality and obscures diversity.
